band, Who Then Kills Himself.

From Roswell Record. About 6 o'clock last Wednesday evening Arthur Kline arrived in Ros well from Carlshad, where he had gone Monday after giving his wife an inmerciful bearing, and proceeded at once to the house of ill fame where his wife was staying and began kick ing in the door. Sheriff Higgins was called and took him away. Later, about 10 o'clock the same evening while the keeper of the house and another woman and Charley Baker the proprietor of the Oriental restau ant, were sitting around the Kline woman on a bed near the window Kline sneaked up to the window and putting a pistol against the screen the inner blinds being down, fired a the party, the ball striking his wife who was lying on the bed suffering a great deal from the unmerciful bear us he gave her Monday. Instantly there was screaming of women and scampering to get away.
